

Kidnapped !

10/30/2004 Pete writes: “In the early 1930’s with the blessings from Tomas Arellano, mother Jovita went to Mexicali [Mexico], after learning through the grapevine our dad had died, and she then kidnapped us [Johnny and Pete] from Tio Guillermo Estrada Delgado. Dad had two brothers, Tio Ramon Estrada Delgado and Tio Manuel Estrada Delgado...one can see that there was hanky panky in those days. One can see too that they all had the same mother (Estrada) but my dad Vincente came from the Rondero clan. Who own much land where his mother and father lived & worked on as peons. The Rondero family is from the state of Sonora, Mexico D.F.”
